

SEEK CAREER ADVANCEMENT WITHOUT PUTTING YOUR LIFE ON HOLD

Master of Science in Nursing Online

Oklahoma City University's Master of Science in Nursing Online is your stepping stone for advanced job opportunities, higher earning potential, and valuable industry connections—and it's offered 100% online. Complete coursework on your own schedule, and dig into a specialization of education, leadership, or community-based public health to prepare you to take on your role shaping the future of nursing. Ready to get started?

To apply for the MSN Online program, applicants must have:

- ☐ An active, unencumbered U.S. RN license
- ☐ A BSN from an accredited nursing program, or
 - ☐ For RN-MSN applicants, a bachelor's degree in any field
- ☐ A cumulative 3.0 undergraduate GPA
- ☐ Current Basic Life Support (BLS) and/or CPR certification
- ☐ Resumé
- ☐ Personal statement
- ☐ Official transcripts from all previously attended institutions
- ☐ 2 letters from professional references

Naturalized U.S. citizens, immigrants with permanent residence status, and international students from non-English speaking countries seeking admission to the MSN Online need to demonstrate English proficiency in one of the following ways:

Minimum scores indicated on any of the following examinations:

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> TOEFL-Internet Based Test (contains spoken English test): <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Total score: 80• Speaking Sections score: 20 | <input type="checkbox"/> International English Language Testing System (IELTS) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Speaking: 7.0• Other sub-bands: 6.5 |
|--|---|

International applicants seeking an F1 visa are not eligible for OCU's nursing programs.

To be considered for admission to the online MSN program, complete the online application.

This quality program is accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing, 3343 Peachtree Road NW Suite 500, Atlanta, GA 30326, (404) 975-5000, or www.acenursing.org.